

Top-down approach

By Molly Houseman

Otago Daily Times

PHOTO: STEPHEN JAQUIERY

Otago Daily Times

The walls come tumbling down as demolition work continues at the former Cadbury factory site in Dunedin. Two 20-tonne excavators made light work of beginning demolition of the factory facade yesterday.

The excavators were craned up by a 74m-high crane nicknamed “Stretch” by demolition workers.

The facade walls are likely to be toppled in the next few weeks, but removing the landmark Cadbury silos will take longer.

Otago Daily Times

Top-down approach